

A _____ FAIRY TALE once upon a time.....

There were two beautiful islands surrounded by water where a notoriously gruesome and merciless Kraken made its home. Suffice to say, no tourist ever dared to visit these islands and the islands' inhabitants were never crazy enough to visit each other.

On the _____ island there lived two tribes - the Velvets and the Distractors.
On the _____ island, there too lived the Velvets and the Distractors (don't you dare assume they are the same!). There was also the Aces tribe. You might have thought they'd be lonely and bored but actually, they liked that they didn't get annoying tourists messing up all of their stuff and didn't care too much that they weren't able to visit each other. In fact, you might say that the islands are independent of each other. Well....mostly.

The tribes actually hated each other and could not get along no matter how hard they tried. Whenever a problem arose, they could not find a solution. It almost seemed as if something was missing. Some tried searching the internet but ended up somehow watching cat videos online. This happened EVERY. DAY.. Others gave up and slept their sorrows away. But a few hopeful (perhaps seemingly foolish) ones laid down offerings at shrines and prayed in hopes that one day someone would appear from the sky and bring peace to their troubled lands.

The islanders' yelps of pain and prayers combined with the fragrance of the offerings wafted upwards into a sleeping chamber in the sky. Upon hearing the peoples' cries and smelling the offerings' aroma, Princess Timea awakens from her 13.8 billion year nap! She rushes down to aid her peoples.

Oh! But what to do? How can she bring peace to both islands? She knew that once she lands on an island, she is stuck. Even SHE is not powerful enough to defeat the Kraken nor crazy enough to attempt to cross the water.

In a sudden moment of inspiration, she comes up with a solution. She summons her magical power to build a magical bridge that is 100% guaranteed magically Kraken-proof. Because she is magical and all, the magical bridge can only be used by magical Princess Timea. But that's okay for the islanders as long as Princess Timea is able to help solve their problems. And she did! All of the tribes problems were solved and they all lived happily ever after. Hooray!!! THE END.
